President's Report

Strong demand for top quality broodmares and broodmare prospects at the Magic Millions National Sales in late May was encouraging for the industry considering present economic conditions in Australia.

All breeders will shortly receive their voting papers requiring a "yes" or "no" answer on whether you are in favour of the proposal to introduce a statutory levy of $10 per mare on all broodmare and stallion returns to the Australian Stud Book.

Full information on the proposal has been circulated and if you have any queries or need further information please contact our office.

You will receive one vote for each mare you return and if the proposal goes through the funds raised each year will attract dollar-for-dollar matching by the Federal Government to conduct vital equine research specifically targeted to benefit the thoroughbred breeding and racing industries.

This proposal has the support of the vast majority of Australia's leading breeders but every vote counts in proving to government that it does have widespread industry support. We urge you firstly to express your view by voting and secondly to vote in favour.

Breeding Awards dinner at Scone, August 24

Enclosed with this magazine you will find your invitation to our third annual National & NSW Breeding Awards Dinner to be held at Scone Racecourse on Saturday evening, August 24.

Broadcaster Alan Jones, who has a successful involvement as a breeder and owner, will be our special guest.

Seating for this great night is limited so please contact our office with bookings as early as possible.

Passing of Jaime Mackay

Along with many friends who knew him, we were shocked and saddened greatly to learn of the sudden death from a heart attack on May 17 of Jaime Mackay, owner of Cangon Stud, Dungog.

From a family long involved in the breeding of thoroughbreds and polo ponies, Jaime and his wife Jennifer have been important contributors to our industry and their daughter Catriona, wife of Segenhoe Stud manager Royston Murphy, is manager of her great aunt Ann Raymond's historic Sledmere Stud at Scone.

Jaime Mackay was one of Australia's best polo players in the 1970s, 1980s and early 1990s, representing Australia in many tournaments and his son Jock is following his father as a prominent participant in the sport.

We extend our sympathies to the Mackay family.

Timeform Review

By Gary Crispe and Alex Steedman

Eight Group 1 races were conducted during the Queensland Winter Carnival which gave many talented gallopers the chance to move from the shadows of the topline stars we watch during the spring and autumn.

Epaulette – a powerful finish brought success in the Doomben 10,000

Group 1 racing winds down in the Sunshine State each season and with Australia's genuine stars being spelled with a view to the spring, it provides the opportunity for others to make an impression at the top level.

Two impressive examples of this were three-year-old colts Epaulette and Your Song.

Both ventured north with the main aim of the Group 1 Stradbroke Handicap however their efforts in lead up races were what helped maximise the duo's stallion prospects.

Already a winner of the 2012 Group 1 Golden Rose (1400m), Epaulette also possesses minor placings behind Black Caviar, All Too Hard and Pierro.

His appeal as a stallion grew even more courtesy of a dominant win in the Group 1 Doomben 10,000 (1350m).

Always giving an honest account of himself, Epaulette was well fancied to take out the Doomben 10,000, a race not quite up to the level he had been contesting.

Perennial placegetter Buffering went out setting a strong early tempo in search of an elusive Group 1 victory while Epaulette settled a long way back.

“The early hot speed took its toll on the leaders soon after that point which resulted in Epaulette drawing clear for a two length win.”

Jockey Kerrin McEvoy looked for space down the centre of the track upon straightening however still had work to do with a furlong remaining.

The early hot speed took its toll on the leaders soon after that point which resulted in Epaulette drawing clear for a two length win.

The success yielded Epaulette a new master Timeform rating of 126, two pounds clear of his previous peak figure achieved when finishing second behind the great Black Caviar in the TJ Smith (1200m). It comes in marginally below the prior five year winning average of the event with the latest renewal not quite possessing the same level of depth as past runnings claimed by some very popular gallopers.

Sea Siren took out the 2012 renewal while prior to her the Doomben 10,000 was claimed by the likes of Beaded [120, 2011], Hot Danish [124, 2010], Takeover Target [125, 2007] and Apache Cat.

The popular baldy-faced star saluted during both the 2008 and 2009 renewals with efforts assessed at 127 and 124 respectively.

Epaulette was considered a leading Doomben 10,000 chance although not quite to the extent of Your Song who contested the event after dominating in the BTC Cup (1200m) at Eagle Farm.

Your Song looked to be ambitiously placed in the BTC Cup first up considering the Anthony Cummings-trained colt had also been accepted for a Benchmark 80 at Rosehill on the same day.

Linton, surprise winner of the 2013 Stradbroke

Connections elected the tougher option and the decision has returned a reward worth millions.

The BTC Cup profiled as the race where one of either Rain Affair or perennial Group 1 placegetter Buffering would finally claim an elusive victory at the top level.

Heavy going swung things in the favour of Rain Affair although Your Song turned out to be the main beneficiary.

Rain Affair of course sped out to the front while Peter Robl had Your Song positioned fourth and one off the rail.

Those on Rain Affair would have thought they were home as the Joe Pride-trained sprinter was travelling upon straightening.

Your Song was doing better though and struck the front with minimal fuss at the furlong on his way to a commanding five length win.

Rain Affair chalked up a fourth Group 1 placing while another three-year-old in Better Than Ready filled third.

Favourite Buffering never looked likely to threaten as he finished fourth. The Robert Heathcote-trained sprinter was slow into stride and was always trying to play catch up from there.

“Those on Rain Affair would have thought they were home as the Joe Pride-trained sprinter was travelling upon straightening.”

Buffering was caught three wide with no cover as jockey Damian Browne looked to improve his position. The Mossman gelding from there only battled as another golden opportunity to claim a maiden Group 1 success went begging.

Your Song returned a figure of 122, 10 pounds superior to his previous master rating achieved when second in the Run To The Rose behind Pierro.

The win still sits below the previous five-year-winning average of the event which has been skewed sharply because of Black Caviar’s 2011 victory assessed at 133.

Three-year-olds appeared to have a stranglehold on the Stradbroke Handicap (1400m) with the likes of Epaulette, Your Song, Sizzling and Better Than Ready all possessing strong lead up form.

It was ghostly grey Linton, however, who delivered an unexpected win. The white warrior sizzled home up the fence reeling in star Buffering during the final few bounds claiming his first Group 1 and validating trainer John Sadler's assessment the six-year-old was good enough to win a major sprint.

It looked like Buffering had finally shed his Group 1 bridesmaid tag just 100m from home. He set the tempo and kicked clear at the top of the straight putting what looked to be enough of a margin on the rest of them.

As Buffering kicked, Linton was still near last with two furlongs in front of him to weave some magic.

Jockey Nicholas Hall made the key decision to stay on the fence, and it opened up superbly for him as Linton quickly found top gear.

There was still at least five lengths to make up at the 200m and about three more to find 100m from home.

Just as Buffering looked to have secured an elusive major, the Victorian grey exploded to the lead and finished almost a length in front, such was the power of his final burst.

Linton ran to 120 in winning the race, a pound shy of Mid Summer Music's mark from 12 months ago.

For the second-straight year Buffering won the race at the weights, equalling his mark of 126 from last year.

Only 12th in last year's Cox Plate, John Sadler has already highlighted the lucrative weight-for-age feature as Linton's main spring goal.

Also heading towards the Cox Plate following the Queensland Winter Carnival is the Chris Waller-trained Beaten Up after claiming the Doomben Cup (2000m).

The UK import had shown encouraging signs during his first Australian campaign and there was a sense of timing about the five-year-old fourth up rising in trip.

Beaten Up enjoyed a nice run in transit with jockey Leith Innes positioning the Beat Hollow gelding just worse than midfield on the fence.

Innes still had plenty of horse underneath him as they straightened and from there the pair went about catching Manighar who attempted to steal the race kicking early in the straight.

The long sustained run saw Beaten Up hit the front approximately 50m from home as he drew clear for a three-quarter length success.

Stablemate Foreteller powered into second late while Secret Admirer added another Group 1 placing to her record as she finished third.

In a field filled with Group 1 winners, Beaten Up's Doomben Cup victory was assessed at 124.

Hawkspur proved the star staying 3YO of the 2013 Brisbane Winter Carnival

It came in as the five-year-old's new master Timeform figure, two pounds clear of his prior best achieved when winning the 2011 Group 3 St Simon Stakes (2418m) at Newbury.

From a Doomben Cup perspective, a figure of 124 sits above the prior five year winning average.

The event has been taken out by some well performed middle distance types during that period including Mawingo [122, 2012] and Metal Bender [123, 2010].

Scenic Shot claimed two Doomben Cups during that period in 2009 and 2011.

Beaten Up's winning figure is the fifth highest during the past two decades with Might And Power sitting atop of that list taking out the 1998 renewal assessed at 128.

Beaten Up's Doomben Cup victory is an exciting one with connections already eyeing off weight-for-age spring features. Previously trained by William Haggas, high opinions of Beaten Up have long existed and his latest success further validates them.

Haggas has already expressed interest in coming to Australia this spring for a tilt at Cox Plate success. His potential runners could do battle with their former stablemate in the event with Waller and connections considering the Cox Plate with Beaten Up.

The Beat Hollow gelding will likely have to lift on his last start performance however it appears he does have the upside necessary.

Very lightly raced, Beaten Up has won four of his 11 starts with an additional two minor placings bolstering his record. The gelding will no doubt have taken benefit from his first Australian preparation as well.

Doomben Cup also marked the final racetrack appearances of both Secret Admirer and Lamasery.

Broodmare duties beckon for Secret Admirer and her progeny will no doubt be sought after following an impressive career.

The Grahame Begg-trained mare was a dual Group 1 winner with successes in both the 2010 Flight Stakes (1600m) and also the 2011 Epsom Handicap (1600m). She was Group 1 placed a further eight times.

Lamasery ran well below expectations in the Doomben Cup as he settled last and only made up minimal ground late to finish eighth.

A flagship horse for Vandyke in his comeback to training, Lamasery exits racing with 11 wins and five minor placings from 25 starts.

The Commands gelding was a multiple Group winner with the 2012 Hill Stakes (2000m) arguably the jewel in his crown.

Not content to dominate the Sydney racing scene during the 2012/13 season, Waller enjoyed plenty of success during the winter carnival also saddling up Queensland Derby winner Hawkspur.

The win resulted in Hawkspur completing a respected Sunshine State three-year-old Group treble of sorts having already had the Rough Habit Plate (2100m) and the Grand Prix Stakes (2200m) in his keeping.

Hawkspur began poorly but settled midfield and simply waited for the run to come at the top of the straight.

In the blink of an eye he burst clear, and never gave anything else a chance.

Electric Fusion finished well along on the rail to grab second from Honourous but Hawkspur's final margin was a decisive three lengths.

The run netted a Timeform figure of 115, the best since Dariana ran to 116 when winning the race in 2010.

It put Hawkspur about two pounds above the five-year average for the race and looks to have injected some much-needed youth into the Australian staying ranks.

The run was also a new peak for Hawkspur. The Purrealist gelding improved with every run during this latest campaign which began in a Benchmark 85 Handicap (1400m) at Randwick on April 1 where he ran a Timeform figure of 92.

Waller revealed Hawkspur had exceeded expectations during the Queensland Winter Carnival and while now fully qualified for both the Caulfield and Melbourne Cups during the spring, connections at this stage are tempering expectations.

Another not getting too carried away with spring aspirations is Pat Carey after Gondokoro and Rhys McLeod dominated the Queensland Oaks at Eagle Farm.

The Zabeel filly was only narrowly defeated during The Roses the run prior behind Dear Demi however emphatically turned the tables in the main event.

Gondokoro was positioned midfield by jockey Rhys McLeod with the pair keeping Dear Demi well within their sights.

A crucial moment took place with approximately 900m remaining as Nash

Rawiller began to move Dear Demi off the fence. McLeod capitalised on this as he moved the Zabeel filly up through the field along the rail.

Rounding the home turn the pair did move off the fence before barging into clear running room upon straightening.

Gondokoro from there stamped her authority on the race as she pulled away to claim a three length victory.

Miss Zenalla and Vaquera filled the minor placings.

Race favourite Dear Demi finished more than eight lengths off the winner in seventh.

Gondokoro's winning performance yielded the filly a new master Timeform rating of 111, seven pounds above her previous peak rating achieved in the VRC Oaks however she could not back this effort up a week later in the Queensland Derby.

Another younger horse to chalk up his first Group 1 victory during the Queensland Winter Carnival was Romantic Touch.

Romantic Touch continued a fruitful Winter Carnival for Gooree Stud in the footsteps of Your Song when contesting the Group 1 JJ Atkins Stakes (1600m) at Eagle Farm.

Sizzling, winner of the 2013 Queensland Guineas

Red Tracer scored an overdue Group 1 victory in Tattersall's Tiara.

The son of Northern Meteor was too strong in the race formerly known as the TJ Smith, leading from the outset and fending off strong challenges from minor placegetters Zoustar and Paximedia.

Romantic Touch was coming off a 7.5L demolition job against an open two-year-old field at Canterbury and was heavily backed to claim a first Group 1 win just three starts after breaking his maiden.

The run produced a figure of 115p and looks to have unearthed another talented juvenile from the Waterhouse yard.

A campaign aimed at the Caulfield Guineas likely lies in store for Romantic Touch during the spring.

Group 1 racing concluded with the Tattersall's Tiara (1400m) at Eagle Farm where Red Tracer claimed an overdue win at the top level.

Bred and owned by long-time stable supporters Geoff and Mary Grimish, Red Tracer finally got what had been an elusive success at the top level following three minor Group 1 placings.

The writing was on the wall early that week reducing the Eagle Farm track to a Slow 7, perfect conditions for Red Tracer, although she still faced a stiff line up of challengers including her old sparring partner Streama, and boom Queensland filly Peron.

She also had to start from the widest gate while Streama had the luxury of barrier one.

Both mares jumped well, with Red Tracer assuming a slightly wide, yet comfortable spot just off the pace set by Steps In Time and Arctic Flight.

Streama meanwhile was buried back on the rail in midfield and Peron sat well back in the field.

Rounding the bend Red Tracer pulled wide with plenty of cover and hit the front about 200m from home before bounding away to finish 2.3L clear.

Streama took plenty of shortcuts on the fence and just nosed out a game Floria for third. Consistent stablemate Skyerush was fourth while Peron could only manage 10th after being forced very wide rounding the home turn.

Red Tracer equalled her career peak with the win, running to 119 – the same figure she produced when edged out by a nose in the Group 1 Coolmore Classic (1500m) during the Sydney autumn behind Appearance.

Red Tracer’s win was almost three pounds above the five-year winning average leading into the race.

Only 2010 winner Melito, who ran to 122, has produced a better figure since Dane Ripper’s success during 1997 which followed her triumph in the Stradbroke Handicap two weeks prior.

While not Group 1 successes, a few middle distance/staying types produced some good winning efforts during the Queensland Winter Carnival.

Peter Moody-trained Lights Of Heaven returned to the scene of her best career wins and took out the Group 2 Hollindale Stakes (1800m) at the Gold Coast.

Quintessential also saves her best for Queensland and bagged a Group double with successes in the Chairman’s Handicap (2100m) and Eagle Farm Cup (2200m).

The John Sargent-trained mare ran second in the Group 2 Brisbane Cup (2400m) won by another Chris Waller interstate raider, Moriarty.

The remainder of season 2012/2013 largely sees feature races of Saturday metropolitan programs only possessing Listed or Open Handicap status.

It gives racing fans a chance to reflect on the season that was before Group races begin returning during August.

Voids must be filled during the 2013/14 season with feature racedays losing some big names to our breeding industry.

These losses are of course spearheaded by unbeaten champion sprinter Black Caviar while others to have made their racetrack farewell’s during the autumn include her half-brother All Too Hard, Pierro and More Joyous.

Interesting newcomers among NSW stallion intake for 2013

By Les Young

In the Autumn issue of Update we gave details of the four high profile new sires we knew at that time to be retiring to studs in NSW. They were All Too Hard, Animal Kingdom, Excelebration and Pierro.

Five others announced since then are covered here and while most will stand for lower fees than the above mentioned elite group they have pedigrees and performances that make them interesting options to consider for many breeders. They are Bullet Train, Crowded House, Delago Deluxe, Harbour Watch and Your Song.

Bullet Train (GB) Bay horse – foaled 2007

Standing at Bowness Stud, Murringo via Young – FEE $11,000 (inc. gst)

Unbeaten champion Frankel (14 wins including 10 Group 1s) is considered the best horse seen in Europe since World War II, his Timeform rating of 147 suggesting he was superior to Sea-Bird so it is something of a coup to have his stakeswinning three-quarter brother Bullet Train available to breeders in NSW.

Whereas Frankel is by Galileo from the stakeswinning Danehill mare Kind, Bullet Train is by Galileo's father Sadler's Wells, perhaps the greatest modern day sire to stand in Europe and 14 times champion UK sire. Other sire sons of Sadler's Wells include Montjeu, High Chaparral and El Prado to mention but a few of his notables.

Bullet Train won over 1600m. at two years then at three years captured the Lingfield Derby Trial (2300m.) but following that his racing career was sacrificed and he was used to make the pace for his more illustrious stablemate Frankel.

Sadler's Wells	Northern Dancer	Nearctic
		Natalma
Fairy Bridge		Bold Reason
		Special
Kind	Danehill	Danzig
		Razyana
	Rainbow Lake	Rainbow Quest
		Rockfest

His dam Kind has also produced stakeswinner Noble Mission (by Galileo) and promising two-year-old filly Joyeuse (Oasis Dream). She is a half-sister to top class performers Powerscourt (Sadler's Wells) and Last Train (Rail Link) from Rainbow Lake, winner of the Lancashire Oaks.

Bullet Train is shuttling to Bowness Stud from Wintergreen Stallion Station in Kentucky.

New Sires 2013

Crowded House (GB) Chestnut horse – foaled 2006

Standing at Wattle Grove Stud, Berrima – FEE $11,000 (inc. gst)

Timeform rated this big, flashy chestnut as the best two-year-old seen in the UK in 2008 following the last of his four starts that season when he put up a stunning performance and showed an electric turn of foot to take the Group 1 Racing Post Trophy (1600m) at Doncaster.

On the basis of his juvenile form together with his pedigree, Crowded House looked likely to become a classic contender at three years but issues developed that prevented him reaching his true potential but he regained something like his best form at four years, placing in feature events in Dubai and Abu Dhabi as well as finishing second in the Grade 2 Pacific Classic at Del Mar in California.

Rainbow Quest	Blushing Groom	Red God
		Runaway Bride
	I Will Follow	Herbager
		Where You Lead
Wiener Wald	Woodman	Mr Prospector
		Playmate
	Chapel of Dreams	Northern Dancer
		Terlingua

Crowded House has a lot to offer on pedigree being a son of champion European sire Rainbow Quest whose Epsom Derby-winning son Quest For Fame achieved considerable success and influence standing at Woodlands Stud in the Hunter Valley.

Woodman's daughter Wiener Wald, the dam of Crowded House, adds greatly to Crowded House's credentials to succeed as a sire. She has produced a total of eight winners (two stakeswinners) and her dam Chapel of Dreams, a four time stakeswinner in the USA, is by the great Northern Dancer from the brilliant Secretariat mare Terlingua which makes her a three-quarter sister to champion U.S. sire Storm Cat. Terlingua was a half-sister to another outstanding sire in Royal Academy so Crowded House offers some interesting linebreeding possibilities for Australian breeders.

Delago Deluxe Bay horse – foaled 2008

Standing at Newhaven Park Stud, Boorowa – FEE $11,000 (inc. gst)

Bred in NSW by Gerry Harvey, Delago Deluxe sold as a yearling to South African interests, realising $550,000 at the 2010 Magic Millions Gold Coast Sale.

In South Africa he became champion two-year-old, winding up his juvenile season with victory in the Group 1 Gold Medallion then at three years he defeated top older sprinters to win the Group 1 Golden Horse Casino Sprint.

Encosta de Lago	Fairy King	Northern Dancer
		Fairy Bridge
	Shoal Creek	Star Way
		Rolls
Succeeding	Flying Spur	Danehill
		Rolls
	Staging	Success Express
		Cinerama

These were the highlights in a short racing career which saw the colt win seven races including two other Group events and register two Group 1 seconds in The Mercury Sprint.

By champion sire Encosta de Lago whose son Northern Meteor has made a great start to his stud career, Delago Deluxe is out of good Brisbane winner Succeeding, a half-sister to stakeswinning sires Duporth, Excites and Tickets.

Their dam Staging was an outstanding racemare (10 wins, 1000m to 1600m including 8 black type events) who earned more than $1.18 million on the track.

New Sires 2013

Harbour Watch (IRE) Bay horse – foaled 2009

Standing at Emirates Park Stud, Murrurundi – FEE $9,900 (inc. gst)

Acclamation	Royal Applause	Waajib
		Flying Melody
	Princess Athena	Ahonoora
		Shopping Wise
Gorband	Woodman	Mr Prospector
		Playmate
	Sharoog	Shareef Dancer
		Fall Aspen

Like the previously mentioned Crowded House, Harbour Watch earned Timeform's assessment as the best two-year-old of his year – 2011 – in the UK but this handsome horse was a pure 1200m sprinter who was unbeaten in his only three starts and was prevented by injury from racing again.

After taking a Maiden at Salisbury, Harbour Watch went on to win again at Newmarket before establishing his class at his final start, overcoming trouble to take a competitive Group 2 Richmond Stakes at Goodwood in good style.

Shuttling to Emirates Park from Tweenhills Stud in Britain, Harbour Watch is one of the best sons of emerging speed influence Acclamation, sire of Dark Angel, a leading young sire in the UK, and also of top sprinter Equiano, now shuttling to Victoria.

Standing 16.2 hands, Harbour Watch is a half-brother to Europa Point, a multiple Group 1 winner in South Africa, and comes from the sire producing family of U.S. Blue Hen mare Fall Aspen, his third dam.

Your Song Brown horse – foaled 2009

Standing at Widden Stud, Widden Valley via Denman – FEE $22,000 (inc. gst)

Fastnet Rock	Danehill	Danzig
		Razyana
	Piccadilly Circus	Royal Academy
		Gatana
Zembu	Fuji Kiseki	Sunday Silence
		Millracer
	Wanice	Mr Prospector
		Jood

Your Song's hugely impressive five lengths win in the Group 1 BTC Cup in Brisbane in May marked the Fastnet Rock colt as a hot stallion prospect and arrangements were concluded quickly for him to retire to Widden Stud this spring.

Twice successful at two in Sydney and stakes placed in the ATC Run to the Roses and Roman Consul Stakes, Your Song is a magnificent individual with a pedigree to match.

By champion sire Fastnet Rock and a grandson of Danehill, Your Song is out of Melbourne winner Zembu, by Sunday Silence's good sire son Fuji Kiseki.

He comes from a strong international black type family, his second dam Wanice is by the fabulous Mr. Prospector and his third dam Jood (by champion Nijinsky) was a multiple producer of stakeswinners, notably as dam of champion Fantastic Light, winner of 12 races and a Group 1 winner in Britain, Ireland, USA and Hong Kong.
